MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

"Every child is an artist.
The problem is how to remain an artist once we grow up"
—Pablo Picasso

I remember sitting next to my Mother at our dining room table, painting, and sitting in the woods behind our home with my grandmother, sketching. I took many art classes and sometimes even won awards. Creating art made me extremely happy as a child. However, when I became an adult, my life changed. The time I spent creating art was limited because I was a wife and a working mother and, now that I am retired, living in a small apartment and having limited funds often stops me. I joined the Art League for inspiration from other artists and I look forward to hearing about your dreams and concerns during our Creative Concepts: A Round Table Discussion workshop on October 3rd.

GET WELL WISHES

Michelle Chaisson is recovering from a hospital stay, we wish her a speedy recovery.

PLACES TO GO, THINGS TO SEE

Nassau County Museum of Art: One Museum Drive Roslyn Harbor, NY 11576. True Colors Nothing in art is more powerful than color. From Matisse to Mark Rothko and Frank Stella, and onward to the huge Color Field canvases and pulsing neon sculptures of today, color as a means of expression is the keynote for this wildly exuberant show. Potent even to the point of being considered dangerous, it is the most exciting element of art, the strongest tool in the toolbox. "Color, above all, is a means of liberation," Matisse declared. The full range of color's magic is on display in this exuberant show of over 100 works from the nineteenth century to this moment's hottest talents. The roll call is a hit parade of art history's most exciting names: Kandinsky, Motherwell, Warhol, Wolf Kahn, James Nares, Richard Diebenkorn, Joan Mitchell, David Hockney, and many more. It all begins with a monumental painting by Titian, considered the original champion of color in art, in a dramatic installation.

The Art of Meditation For this Open Call, the Islip Art Museum asks artists to consider how art provides an escape into another realm of consciousness just as meditation provides a look into inner consciousness. Where does art's healing potential come from? It impacts the state of our minds just as meditation does. We feel that creating art is a type of meditation, a training of the mind that allows us to increase awareness and emphasizes acceptance of feelings and thoughts without judgment. Meditation, like Art, allows us to create space between our often negative, anxious thoughts and connect with our true selves – as opposed to the sometimes-false sense of identity we have when we are caught up in our thoughts and emotions. Creating art is about reaching a state of consciousness and breaking free from the constant debilitating chatter of the mind. Or is it? PLEASE NOTE THAT ISLIP ART MUSEUM WILL ONLY ACCEPT DIGITAL SUBMISSIONS Email Submission Guidelines. Subject line should include OPENCALL_2018 Submission_ Your Name · Submit work to our annual open call by email only. Artists are invited to submit up to three works for consideration. · There is NO FEE to submit work. · Email your submission to: IAMopencall2018@gmail.com · Only submissions emailed to this address will be considered. · The body of your email should include the image details: Title, medium, size, and date.
