About the League

The Long Beach Art League was initially formed in 1952, by artist and long-time resident, Leona Post and a few of her friends. Over the years this small group has grown into a paid membership over 100 strong with diversified artists and photographers.

Our Executive Board consists of professional to newly discovered artists who are dedicated to maintaining and promoting the highest quality standards.

League's Mission

To be a positive force in stimulating creativity and proficiency in the arts, while facilitating our members in the realization of their personal goals.
