MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

"The devastating fires in California and continued gun violence that plagues our great nation gives us cause to feel sad-- and, yes, even mad. But it is the artwork in our gallery and the laughter that these unique pieces inspire that bring lightness into our hearts, no matter the challenges we face. It is an honor to be surrounded by so many amazing and talented artists, young and old alike.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a very happy and safe Thanksgiving surrounded by loved ones and thank you for the joy and inspiration that your work brings to others and me.

Kathryn

"The purpose of art is washing the dust of daily life off our souls."

PLACES TO GO, THINGS TO SEE

November 3 through November 25

Artists' Reception: Sunday November 4, 1pm to 3pm

Exhibition Juror: Stephanie Gress, Director of Curatorial Affairs, Suffolk County Vanderbilt Museum Part One features 92 works of art created by the Art League of Long Island's many talented members. Paintings, drawings, collage, photography, print-making, ceramics, sculpture, jewelry, and fiber arts.

The Long Island Museum: Located at 1200 Route 25A in Stony Brook, the Long Island Museum is a Smithsonian affiliate, dedicated to enhancing the lives of adults and children with an understanding of Long Island's rich history and diverse cultures. The museum is open Thursday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m and Sunday from noon to 5.

Regular admission is $10 per person, $7 for seniors and $5 for students ages six to 17. Children under six and museum members are free. For more information call 631-751-0066. The Decoy gallery, located in the Visitors Center, replicates authentic Long Island wetlands as a "natural habitat" for the display of shorebirds and duck decoys. An early 20th century bayman's shack, complete with tools, furnishings and decoys in various stages of completion illustrates the process and methods used by carvers. A wonderfully preserved North Shore duck boat and a saltmarsh diorama based on Effie's Hole, a small cove in eastern Long Island where duck hunting was a mainstay of life, complete this unique environment.

Oysterponds Historical Society: 1555 Village Lane, Orient, NY 11957 office@ohsny.org 631-323-2480

Immerse yourself in the history and stories of the North Fork at the Oysterponds Historical Society (OHS). Learn about the unique heritage of Orient and East Marion by visiting our annual summer exhibitions, which feature historical objects, art, and photography drawn from the OHS collection, widely considered the finest collection of local Long Island history. Visit Village House and Webb House, two historic buildings restored and furnished to illustrate life in the 18th and 19th centuries at a boarding house and tavern. Enjoy our campus and join us for community festivals and educational programs for all ages.

OHS is located in the heart of Orient, New York, on the eastern tip of Long Island's North Fork. Agriculture and fishing are still important in this historic hamlet. Residents and visitors alike revel in the natural beauty that surrounds them in this very special community. Join us for summer exhibitions and special events and community programs throughout the year!
