Slide Lecture

Thomas Germano

“Women Abstract Artists after World War II

Thomas Germano received his Associates Degree in Art from Nassau Community College in 1983. He then went on to study painting and art history at Cornell University earning his bachelor's degree in Fine Arts in 1985. After building a portfolio and working in the field for two years, he received a scholarship to Yale University to study painting with William Bailey and Bernard Chaet at the Yale School of Art, receiving his Masters Degree in Fine Art with a concentration in painting in 1989.

Receiving Information

On April 27, 11:00-12:00Noon, we will receive art for a membership show to accompany the lecture on Abstract Art given by Thomas Germano. The theme for this show is abstract art and we will accept one piece. No larger than 48” in any direction. No fee, no judge.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

The Monday painting/creating sessions at the VFW offers us room to spread out and a peaceful space to create. I also want to remind you that members of the LBAL have been invited by the VFW to submit designs for a new veterans memorial to be erected on Park Avenue across from the VFW Meeting Hall. Please call me for details if you would like to submit a design. Thank you to Commander Dan MacPhee for inviting our members to be creative on Mondays and to participate in the design of a new memorial for our veterans.

Wishing you all Happy Passover, Happy Easter and Happy Spring! Sending good wishes to you, today and always.

Kathryn Ramsey

PLACES TO VISIT

Hillwood Art Museum presents a year-round schedule of temporary and permanent exhibitions that cover topics from antiquity to the cutting edge of contemporary art. The 4500 square foot Museum boasts a beautiful curved gallery which Phyllis Braff of the New York Times has called “one of the Island’s most dramatic showcases of art.” Hillwood Art Museum’s impressive and eclectic Permanent Collection consists of objects dating from the earliest of man’s creative endeavors to contemporary art.

Perfume and Seduction, Feb. 16-June 9.

This special exhibition will present examples of objects from Hillwood's collection that represent the finest luxury objects used in this elaborate ritual. A selection of objects from the private European collection of Givaudan, the Swiss manufacturer of flavors, fragrances, and cosmetics, founded in 1898 by the French brothers, Xavier and Léon Givaudan, will complement the Hillwood collection. Presented for the first time in the United States, the Givaudan collection of luxury objects for the service de toilette is one of the most important and complete in Europe.
