PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Members,

Fall is here, and the leaves are changing color all around us, from soft yellows to fiery oranges and deep reds. Every walk feels like a new palette, and I hope you'll take a few and let the season fill your sketchbook.

October is full of good things for the League, and I'd love to see you at as many of them as you can manage.

Long Beach Fine Art EXPO V takes place Sunday, October 4, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Allegria Hotel. Come see the work, meet the artists, and enjoy a day by the boardwalk. Bring a friend! Having our members there to cheer on the exhibiting artists means a great deal.

Artistry Unveiled, our members-only juried show, will be on view at the Long Beach Public Library Gallery from October 3 through October 31, so there's plenty of time to stop in, and to stop in again! We're honored to have Thomas Germano as our judge. Thomas is an accomplished artist, professor, and art historian, and anyone who has heard him speak knows how much he brings to a conversation about art. He'll announce his selections and talk about the winning work at our member meeting on Wednesday, October 7, at 7:00 p.m. in the library auditorium. I hope to see you there.

We're also looking for a Vice President and an Assistant Treasurer. If you're curious about either role, or just want to know what's involved, please reach out to me at lissetteresnick@gmail.com. I'd be happy to talk it through with you.

Thank you for being part of the League. It's a joy to share this season with such a creative community, and I look forward to seeing you at the EXPO and at our October meeting.

Lisette Resnick
President
Long Beach Art League

Fun with Figure Drawing

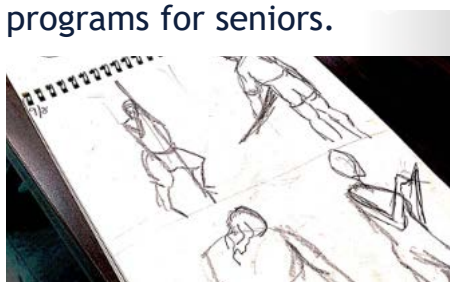

by Linda Chong Haber

Long Beach Art League Sponsor Member

In September Fun with Figure Drawing, a free four-session program, was offered to enthusiastic local artists at the Magnolia Senior Center located at 650 Magnolia Blvd. In collaboration with the City of Long Beach, the Long Beach Art League scheduled this enriching fine art program featuring LBAL member and popular instructor Denise Gilgannon Collins.

Spontaneity and personal expression were encouraged as students explored anatomy, proportion and movement using charcoal, pencil or mixed media. Experienced and beginner artists had the opportunity to learn from expert instruction and informational handouts. They deepened their understanding of the human figure in a supportive and creative setting. Quickly capturing poses by a live model was very challenging and students drew from images as well. Congratulations to all the members of the talented group who worked hard and made wonderful progress strengthening their life drawing skills!

Long Beach seniors, who were registered participants of the Senior Center, were eligible to attend this inspiring art program. For registration information, call 516-431-3510. Much appreciation to the City and Senior Center Coordinator Jennifer Cruz for supporting the League's educational programs for seniors.
